

An Airbus A320 plane from Delhi's Indira Gandhi International Airport (IGI) landed at Noida International Airport, also known as the Jewar airport, on Monday, marking a crucial step in the commencement of commercial operations at the facility in Greater Noida. Scheduled to begin operations in April 2025, the facility situated along the Yamuna Expressway will be the second major airport in NCR after Delhi's IGI airport.