

The Noida International Airport, also known as Jewar Airport, is close to completion, with 80% of the terminal building already finished. The airport, located in the Gautam Buddha Nagar district of Uttar Pradesh, is expected to open on April 17, bringing significant development to the National Capital Region (NCR).