

A 750-meter road linking the Yamuna Expressway with the Noida International Airport in Jewar is most likely to be completed by March 2024. Which is being constructed by the National Highways Authority of India, and will be the main link to the the airport for commuters coming from Noida and Delhi.